Also, please describe or provide a link to program admissions policies that allow students to enter with credit for prior graduate work, and the expected implications for time to completion. Please indicate NA if not applicable: Students wishing to transfer graduate credit from another Syracuse University program, or from another institution, must file a formal petition requesting such transfer. The program will evaluate transfer credit on an individual basis upon entrance into the program. As stated in Syracuse University's Academic Rules Regulations, at least 50% of graduate coursework or 33 credit hours (exclusive of research and internship courses) must be completed in residence credits (approved graduate courses) at Syracuse University. This means that no more than 33 graduate credit hours may be transferred assuming the previously stated residency requirements are met. The residency requirements for the doctoral degree in School Psychology include a minimum of 3 full-time academic years of graduate study (or the equivalence thereof) and completion of a pre-doctoral internship. At least 2 of the 3 academic training years (or the equivalent thereof) must be at Syracuse University, and at least 1 of these years must be in full-time residence (or the equivalent thereof).

Description	2024-2025 1st-year Cohort Cost
Tuition for full-time students (in-state)	$0
Tuition for full-time students (out-of-state)	$0

The Department of Psychology makes a concerted effort to provide financial support, in the form of a tuition scholarship, for all doctoral students who are in good academic standing during their four years of campus residency. The tuition scholarship (30 credit hours) covers 100% of the full-time graduate student tuition costs. In addition to the tuition scholarship, all doctoral students who are in good academic standing are eligible to receive a stipend for their work related to teaching (e.g., undergraduate teaching assistant) or clinical externships (e.g., working at the Syracuse University Psychological Services Clinic). In the past 20 years, ALL students admitted to the School Psychology Program received a stipend and tuition scholarship during their four years of campus residency.
