In the box below, provide a description of your publicly engaged scholarly work. Your work may take the form of teaching, creative work, research, fellowships, and/or other programming. If your work is part of a larger ongoing project within or beyond the University, please describe how your work contributes to these efforts (200 words or less).

Explain how your work qualifies as creative and/or scholarly. Creative and scholarly work is committed to innovative practice, critical inquiry, and the growth of existing knowledge (i.e., while valuable, simply volunteering at an organization would not constitute a scholarly endeavor) (100 words or less).

Explain how your work qualifies as publicly engaged. Please discuss how your work addresses some or all of the following tenets of publicly engaged work – relationality, reciprocity, reflexivity, and ethical representation (100 words or less).

Please outline the components of your Digital Portfolio. Please outline the structure/planned sections of your portfolio and identify the host platform (e.g. Google Sites, Canva, etc.), as well as how you intend to gather and/or create resources that meet the portfolio requirements (200 words or less).

Please describe your mentorship plan. Provide a rationale for working with your mentor(s) within and/or beyond the University. Please provide additional information about your mentor(s) and why they are a good fit for your work. Please describe the nature of your mentoring relationship (i.e. frequency of meetings, review of materials, mentor observations). If you have more than one mentor for your publicly engaged work, please provide a rationale/details for each (200 words or less).

Lastly, please outline key milestones and associated deliverables for your publicly engaged work as well as your timeline to complete aspects of your Digital Portfolio (e.g., four reflections, artifacts, testimonials) (200 words or less).
